themed patio, playing with sand, water and rescuing our friends from a sinking pirate ship. We have welcomed visits from Vicar Richard, and the celebration picnic. We had arts and crafts, stories and songs, and endless fun with the mermaid slime. We would like to thank you all for your support over the last year, as we now sign off for a well-deserved summer break.

What a fantastic, action packed half term we have had, topped off with leavers events and summer party.

This half term we have enjoyed the hot weather with our Beach local police. We got our own CHUF fish to look after and enjoyed our visit from some cute ducklings. We continued to have sessions from Rugby Tots and Cha Char Chimps, both of which the children really enjoy. The school leavers had sessions from Debutots to prepare them for school, and enjoyed the most amazing cake at the leaver's

A massive thank you

Thank you all so much for the kind words, cards and gifts you have brought into CHUF. As always, the ladies want to express how overwhelmed they are by your generosity and kindness. It means so much to know that you appreciate all their effort, and can see how much they love and care for the CHUF children.

We look forward to seeing all our returning children from the 8th September, and for those heading off elsewhere and especially the children off the 'big school' in September. We know you will all be amazing and we look forward to hearing how you are getting on. Have a great summer holiday!
