

CHUF Chearsley Newsletter Spring 2025

Welcome back to CHUF, we hope you had a lovely half term break. This half term starts on Monday 24th February and we break up for Easter on Thursday 3rd April.

The children have had such an amazing half term of activities with our Paddington topic. They have learnt about Paddington and Peru, through so many activities, including baking and crafts, packed their suitcases and had their passports stamped for an adventure and had a visit from some Guinea pigs. Finally, a teddy bears picnic to finish the topic off.

I'm sure you're as impressed as I am by the versatility of a cardboard box – from Big Ben, a train, a tree, and a bus. The children have had so much fun playing and using their imaginations.

We all enjoyed seeing Anne, Laura and Mabel visit to help Karen celebrate her big day. Happy birthday Karen!

Easter Stay and Play
Wednesday 2nd April
9:10 – 10:30am
Parents and siblings welcome.

This coming term our topic will be Peter Rabbit. Look out for more details on our notice board. We will be having visits from some lambs and rabbits, and are looking forward to hatching chicks. We will be continuing our regular sessions with Cha Char Chimps, Debutots and Rugby Tots which the children really enjoy. We will be having our annual Bunny Hop fundraising event. A big thanks in advance for your support with this.

The new funding period starts on the 1st April. Please let Naomi know as soon as possible if you would like to change your sessions following that date. - The funding deadline is quickly approaching.
